

EVERY DAY IS EARTH DAY

Exhibit Panels:

- 1 Introduction
- 2 Pollinators
- 3 Planting for Biodiversity
- 4 Trees
- 5 Fungi and Lichen
- 6 Soil and Water
- 7 Birds
- 8 The River and the Park

Special Thanks to Experts:

- American Museum of Natural History
- Billion Oyster Project
- Native Plant Center - WCC
- NYC Bird Alliance
- New York Mycological Society
- The Goat on a Boat Puppet Theater
- Urban Naturalist Gabriel Willow
- Wild Bird Fund

- Restrooms
- Pedestrian Paths
- Pedestrian Path Steps

Today's Activities:

Explore, Create, and Learn

Enter at 86th Street:

Visit our Expert Stations and learn about everything from Bees, Birds and Native Plants to Lichens and Fungi.

Enter at 87th Street:

Children and playful adults can get a flower tattoo; decorate a flowerpot; plant a seed; make a bee; and more!

Near the Ferry Dock:

See and touch aquatic specimens with Billion Oyster Project and learn how oysters clean our waterways.

In the Playground:

Coat on a Boat Puppet Theater at 1:30pm and 2:30pm.

Throughout the Park:

Visit the Every Day is Earth Day exhibit to learn more about the Park's

Explore our resource pages:

www.carlschurzparknyc.org/earthday